

Agenda ELAN Symposium April 21, 2015

10:00	Moderation Antje Diller-Wolff, shs-medien
	Introduction Dr. Dieter Herzog, Chairman of the board of Springhornhof Foundation
	Cultural exchange through Land Art Dr. Annette Schwandner, Head of the culture department of the Lower Saxony's Ministry of Arts and Culture
	Same but different – the ELAN art projects Bettina v. Dziembowski Artistic director of Springhornhof Foundation
	Yorkshire Sculpture Parc, UK: David Nash, 49 Cube, presented by Peter Murray Centre of Polish Sculpture (CRP): Jarosław Kozakiewicz, Water Path Arte Sella, Italy: Will Beckers, Echo
12:30	Presentation of ELAN art project D28 at Schaeferhof Gabriela Albergaria
	Lunch break at Springhornhof
14:00	Afternoon Introduction Helga Schuchart, Chairman of board of trustees of Springhornhof Foundation
	Introduction of new ELAN partners Andy Goldsworthy and Refuge D'Art, Digne France Nadine Gomez Passmer, Musee Gassendi. Wanas Konst, Knislinge, Schweden Mattias Givell
	Panel discussion and plenum discussion Art and rural development – current status and outlook Rainer Beckedorf Head of department spatial planning and rural development at Lower Saxony's Ministry for Food, Agriculture and Consumer Protection Land Art between province and metropolises Prof. Dr. Ulrich Krempel Former director of Sprengel Museum Hannover and member of artistic advisory board of Springhornhof Foundation Diversity of European land art – what ELAN can achieve? Prof. Dr. Udo Weilacher, Faculty of landscape architecture of regional open spaces at the TU University Munich
	The land art network – perspectives Wolfgang Löwe Board member of Springhornhof Foundation
17:00	Get-together, with coffee, cake and beverages